

Continue the Stories of Impact

Your prayers, generosity, encouragement, and partnership make it possible for these stories to continue.

And there are still more stories waiting to be written.

More students to equip.
More patients to care for.
More farmers to support.
More young people to encourage.
More leaders to strengthen.
More communities to serve.
More lives to reach with the love of Christ.

A Message to our Partners

As we celebrate Thanksgiving in Canada, we give thanks for the privilege of joining God in His work across Northern Ghana.

Behind every project is a person, every number is a story, and every accomplishment reflects a community, a partner, and a faithful God.

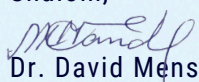

Recently, Fordjour Andrews, an NEA-sponsored student, returned with his mother simply to say thank you. Now a 2026 KNUST Biological Science graduate, his journey represents a dream fulfilled. His mother shared:

"Through your sponsorship, I now have a son who is a graduate and I am very happy."

Her words remind us that sponsorship is about more than education—it is about opening doors, nurturing potential, and bringing hope to families.

At the heart of it all is the love of Christ, motivating us to serve with compassion and hope.

These are their stories. Together, they are our shared impact.

Shalom,

Dr. David Mensah
GRID & NEA Executive Director

STORIES OF PROMISE

300 youth gathered together for their annual Youth Conference. We thank Him for the fellowship shared, the lives touched, and the opportunities to encourage and equip the next generation.

STORIES OF PROVISION

The new farm equipment is helping farmers across several communities. In Teselima, farmer Habiba Salifu benefited from the ploughing services, helping her cultivate a bountiful peanut harvest.

A STORY OF LIFE PRESERVED

Two years ago, a newborn arrived at Leyaata Hospital with a rare skin condition requiring specialized care. With expert treatment and close monitoring, the baby's skin transformed beautifully within a week. Without appropriate medical care, the condition could have placed his life at serious risk. Today, nearly two years later, he is growing beautifully, and the hospital team continues to monitor his well-being. We praise God for preserving this precious life.

One child. One life preserved. One story that reminds us why compassionate healthcare matters.

STORIES OF EMPOWERMENT

Restoring Dignities. Renewing Possibilities.

Three lives are receiving vital support. Sophia received help to start a sewing livelihood, while a young man is receiving support toward a prosthetic arm and another toward emergency hip replacement surgery.

STORIES OF TRUST

Lasting change begins with relationships. For decades, GRID & NEA have served alongside communities through listening, collaboration and mutual trust.
